The Coral Allegro Once Valencia was created in 1982. Being supported by the Spanish Blind National Organization (O.N.C.E.), 50% of its more than 40 choristers (both young girls and boys) are blind or visually impaired. Internationally considered as a reference into the world of inclusive education and creative therapies, its project is also included into the “Music as a Global Resource Compendium” (United Nations). Over the years Allegro’s choir has built an unrivalled reputation performing at numerous special concerts (TV and radio broadcasts) and recordings, and they have travelled throughout the world giving performances at many prestigious venues such as the Europeades (France 1989, 1991 and Denmark, 1993); Young People Music Festival (Portugal, 1990); Europa Cantat (Hungary, 1996 and Spain, 2010); Expo’98 (Portugal, 1998); Opening ceremony-World Championship Sports for the Blind and Visually Impaired (Spain, 1998); ISME conferences (Spain, 2004, China, 2010 and Greece, 2012); International Day of People with Disabilities- European Parliament (Brussels, Belgium, 2016). Up to date, they have recorded six cds and their seventh record will be presented next December.
